Summary

I am a passionate and self-taught front end developer, with expertise in React, and CSS. I have completed multiple projects and challenges, showcasing my creativity, problem-solving, and coding abilities.

I have a portfolio of websites and applications that demonstrate my proficiency in HTML, CSS, JS, and APIs. I am eager to learn new technologies and frameworks, and to apply my skills to real-world scenarios. My goal is to become a full-stack developer and to contribute to the web development community.
